
RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS POLICY

OCI N.V.

Adopted by the Board on 29 January 2020
and amended on 1 August 2020

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Board recognizes that transactions with related parties may cause prejudice to the Company and its stakeholders and that adequate safeguards for the protection of the interests of the Company and its stakeholders are of importance.
- 1.2 The purpose of this policy is to provide adequate protection for the interests of the Company and its stakeholders.
- 1.3 This policy has been prepared with due observance of the requirements of Dutch law, the Code and the Company's articles of association and by-laws. This policy shall be reviewed and amended when the developments so require.
- 1.4 In this policy, capitalized terms have the meaning set out in Annex A.

2 IDENTIFYING AND REPORTING RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

- 2.1 (Potential) Related Party Transactions must be reported in accordance with this clause 2 before such transaction is entered into.
- 2.2 (Potential) Related Party Transactions must be reported to the Co-Chair who will subsequently report these transactions to the Board.
- 2.3 The Co-Chair must report any (potential) Related Party Transaction relating to him to the Vice-Chair who will subsequently report this transaction to the remainder of the Board.
- 2.4 In the event of a (potential) Related Party Transaction, the reporting party shall provide all relevant information regarding the (potential) Related Party Transaction available to her or him.

3 APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

- 3.1 The Non-Executive Directors shall decide whether a potential Code Related Party Transaction qualifies as a Code Related Party Transaction. If the transaction is considered a Code Related Party Transaction, the transaction requires the prior approval of the Non-Executive Directors. A Non-Executive Director shall not participate in the deliberations and decision-making regarding the approval of a Related Party Transaction if he or she is a Related Party, or performs a function at a Related Party or its business.

3.2 The Board shall decide whether a potential Statutory Related Party Transaction qualifies as a Statutory Related Party Transaction. If the transaction is considered a Statutory Related Party Transaction, the transaction requires the approval of the Board. A Director shall not participate in the deliberations and decision-making regarding the approval of a Related Party Transaction if he or she is a Related Party, or performs a function at a Related Party or its business.

3.3 In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Non-Executive Directors or the Board will take into account, among other factors they deem appropriate:

- (i) whether the Related Party Transaction is on terms no less favourable than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third-party under the same or similar circumstances and the extent of the Related Party's interest, in the Related Party Transaction;
- (ii) the approximate monetary value of the amount involved in the Related Party Transaction;
- (iii) the approximate monetary value of the amount of the Related Party's interest in the Related Party Transaction;
- (iv) the purpose of, and the potential benefits to the Company or Subsidiary deriving from the Related Party Transaction;
- (v) if a Director is related to the Related Party, whether the Related Party Transaction would impair the independence of the Director concerned;
- (vi) in case of a Code Related Party Transaction, whether the transaction constitutes a deviation from clause 2.7.5 Code as the transaction is not entered into on terms that are customary in the market, and whether such deviation is justified; and
- (vii) any other information regarding the Related Party Transaction or the Related Party that could be material to the Company and its stakeholders.

4 DISCLOSURE AND REPORTING

4.1 The Company shall publicly disclose on its website each Statutory Related Party Transaction ultimately at the moment the Statutory Related party Transaction is entered into. The public disclosure shall in any event include the following information:

- (i) the Statutory Related Party's name;
- (ii) the nature of the relationship with the Statutory Related Party;
- (iii) the date the Statutory Related Party Transaction is, or will be, entered into;
- (iv) the value of the Statutory Related Party Transaction; and
- (v) such other information that is necessary for assessing whether the Statutory Related Party Transaction is reasonable and fair from the Company's perspective and from the perspective of the Company's shareholders that are not involved in the transaction as a Statutory Related Party.

4.2 Notwithstanding any other obligations under applicable reporting requirements to disclose Related Party Transactions in the Company's annual report, Code Related Party Transactions shall be disclosed in the Company's annual report in accordance with clause 2.7.5 Code.

5 PERIODIC REVIEW OF CERTAIN EXCLUDED TRANSACTIONS

5.1 The Board will periodically assess whether transactions that were considered Excluded Transactions based on sub (e) of the definition of Excluded Transactions (i.e., on the ground that they were entered into in the ordinary course of business and under normal market conditions), indeed qualified as Excluded Transaction on this ground. In conducting this review, the Board may obtain information from senior management and other employees and external advisors of the Company.

5.2 This assessment will take place in the meetings in which the Board discusses the quarterly or semi-annual financial statements, unless decided otherwise by the Co-Chair.
